Conference communications

Fed up of the ups and downs of police reform? Keen to help your members keep their feet on the ground?

Let us help take the strain.

For the last six years, Word Association has produced a newsletter about the annual national conference for Leicestershire Police Federation and last year several other Federations followed their lead.

So don't get left behind. Let your members know about all the highs and lows of the conference agenda, and see how Word Association can help you communicate effectively.

Our copywriting and newsletter service is led by Julie Horwood, a trained journalist who attends the conference and liaises with Federation representatives.

The copywriting service can cost as little as £300.

For more details, please contact Julie on 01455 614333 or email julie@wordassociation.co.uk.
